PERTH CONVENTION AND EXHIBITION CENTRE WINS TOP AWARDS

Perth Convention and Exhibition Centre (PCEC) took out two top awards yesterday evening at the Western Australian Restaurant & Catering Awards for Excellence.

Winning for the fifth time, PCEC took home the award category for 'Best Function Centre Caterer' and Wendelin Ulrich, Executive Sous Chef of PCEC won the 'Function Chef of the Year' award.

PCEC General Manager, Dean Lee congratulated the team on this great achievement.

"I wish to congratulate the entire team at PCEC for their contribution and commitment in ensuring our standard of catering and quality of service is first class for all of our events from start to finish."

"Whether the event be an intimate cocktail or a four day convention, our staff have the skills and professionalism to deliver superior results that reflect in standards we set for winning awards such as these," Mr Lee stated.

These awards recognise the highest achievers in the restaurant and catering industry. PCEC will now automatically enter the national awards for these categories and winners will be announced on the 25 October 2010 in Melbourne.
